

Revenue evidence statement — pre-revenue

This statement is submitted in place of a bank statement or payment-processor dashboard because ENTARC generated no revenue during the hackathon period. There is no payment processor connected to the project, no customer has been invoiced, and no funds have been received.

REVENUE BY MONTH (USD)

PERIOD	REVENUE	EVIDENCE
May 2026 (from the 19th)	$0.00	No payment processor connected
June 2026	$0.00	No payment processor connected
July 2026	$0.00	No payment processor connected
August 2026 (to the 17th)	$0.00	No payment processor connected
Total revenue	$0.00

MONEY MOVEMENT THAT DID OCCUR

The project moved money in the opposite direction: the agent deployed capital rather than collecting it. Two autonomous USDC transfers were executed on Arc Testnet on 2 August 2026, both verifiable on-chain. These are outflows from the agent's own wallet, not revenue.

TRANSFER	AMOUNT	DIRECTION
Milestone 1 — A NEW ONE	1.50 USDC	Outflow (investment)
Milestone 2 — A NEW ONE	0.90 USDC	Outflow (investment)

STATEMENT

LINE ITEM	AMOUNT
Revenue	$0.00
Product / subscription revenue	$0.00
Services revenue	$0.00
Related-party revenue	$0.00
Cost of goods sold	$0.00
Gross profit	$0.00
OPERATING EXPENSES	AMOUNT
AI development tooling (Claude subscription, used to build the agent)	$240.00
Marketing and customer acquisition	$0.00
Infrastructure and hosting	$0.00
Other operating expenses	$0.00
Total operating expenses	$240.00
Net profit / (loss)	($240.00)

Why infrastructure is $0. Every runtime dependency of the submitted product is on a free tier during the period: the Gemini API free tier for due diligence, Circle's developer sandbox for the agent wallet, and Arc Testnet for settlement, where the gas paid by the agent's own transactions totals roughly $0.0016 in valueless testnet USDC. No paid infrastructure was consumed.

Pre-revenue by design at this stage. The agent's function during the period was to deploy capital autonomously, not to collect fees. Monetisation (paid due-diligence reports and a fee on funded deals) is described in the submission and has not yet been switched on, so no revenue is claimed.

I declare that this profit and loss statement is accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge.

A NEW ONE is a technically robust memecoin launchpad on the Arc L1, featuring significant gas optimizations and a rug-proof liquidity model. With 340 commits and a functional testnet deployment, it demonstrates high execution capability for a niche ecosystem.

Gemini scores A NEW ONE at 88/100 (STRONG_BUY). The spending policy clears the release — within the $5 per-transaction cap, inside the $20 rolling 24-hour budget, trust above the threshold of 70 — and the agent sends 1.5 USDC from its own Circle wallet. MoonVault exhibits multiple critical red flags, including claims of 'guaranteed' 100x returns and 'zero risk,' which are fundamentally impossible in DeFi. With zero public code, no audit, and no verifiable infrastructure, the project presents as a high-probability fraudulent scheme.

MoonVault ("guaranteed 100x yields", anonymous team, no public code) scores 0/100; Gemini calls it a high-probability fraudulent scheme. The policy gate denies the release and no transaction is created. The guardrails are enforced in code, not in prose.
